The Church Bell It has been quiet in these parts for a couple of weeks. The church bell is refusing to work. So, we need to investigate to see who can help – Quasimodo, perhaps?

Outreach Group went into the city centre on their monthly visit on Tuesday evening. Jim Lawson writes: "A big thanks to everyone on a busy night in our city centre helping people less fortunate than ourselves. It's amazing the amount of stuff we go through and, not only that, but the comforting words given which probably mean a lot to the ladies and gents we come across."

The group goes into the city centre on the first Tuesday of each month. They leave from the church at 6pm. If you'd like to get involved or make a donation, have a word with Fr Ian or Jim. Also, donations can be left in the porch kitchen at the church entrance.

Following up from the accompaniment input and discussion in March and April delivered by the Proximity Project, the Pastoral Development Department invite you to explore how best to practically embed aspects of accompaniment in your own parish context. To register and receive the zoom link please email Jenny at pd@rcaol.org.uk as soon as possible.

The World Meeting of Families was instituted by Pope St John Paul II in 1994. The
